EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. This communication is an Examiner's reasons for allowance in response to application filed on December 05, 2003, assigned serial 10/729,225 and titled "COMPRESSING LOCATION DATA OF MOVING OBJECTS".

2. The following is the Examiner's statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

a. After carefully reviewing the application in light of the prior art of record and the searches of all the possible areas relevant to the present application, a set of related prior art references has been found, but those prior art references are not deemed strong to make the application unpatentable. Thus, it is found that the application is now in condition for allowance.

b. Although the prior art disclose several claimed limitations, none of the references teaches a method and apparatus for compressing large number of location data of moving objects during a continuous time which includes a data compression means for compressing the location data received via the input interface, and an output interface for outputting the compressed location data of the moving object, wherein the compressing means a) receives the current location of the moving object, b) determines whether the object was in motion of translation previously, c) if determined in b) the object was in translation motion, determines whether the object continues to move translationally after taking account of the current location, if yes, not updating the location data, d) if determined in c) the translational motion is no longer observed after taking account of the current location, updating the location data and returning to a), and e) if determined in b) the object was not in translational motion, determines whether the object is moving randomly nearby, if yes, not updating the location data, otherwise updating the location data, setting the object in motion of translation and returning to a) (claims 1 and 11).

c. Claims 1-20 are allowable over the prior art of record.
